

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1906.

NO. 55.

A Scene from "A Race for a Widow" at Walton's Opera House tonight.

The government printing office is now in fact, as well as in name, an open shop. The 60 printers who were expelled from the union for failure to pay their assessment to continue the strike for an eight-hour day were reinstated and the union will probably make no effort to have them dismissed from the printery, because several years ago they learned that President Roosevelt would not tolerate such a thing. It will be recalled that W. A. Miller, an assistant foreman, was dropped from the printing office force because he had been expelled from the union. President Roosevelt ordered his reinstatement on the ground that membership in a labor organization did not necessarily constitute an essential of the qualification for employment in any branch of the Federal service. In other words, he announced that the policy of the "open shop" would prevail while he was president. The affair has created quite a sensation in governmental and labor circles. Some of the 500 union men employed in the printing office favored a strike if the nonunionists, as the 50 men now are classed, were retained, but this proposition was frowned down by the majority. Labor unions are not so strong anywhere as they were, and not near strong enough in Washington to go up against the president.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

SCHOOL.

Say, kids,

What do you think of school?

By gum,

Ain't it bum?

And yet you've got to have it;

It's medicine, you see,

To cure you for the uses

Of our futurity.

It takes your baby knowledge

And spreads it big and wide

Into a power of greatness

That swells the nation's pride;

It makes the feeble potent,

It lifts the strength of man

To such an elevation

As nothing mortal can;

It builds you into something

You can't at present see,

And makes you what your Maker

Intended you to be.

So, kids,

Stick to it through thick or thin,

And you're bound to win,

But just now it's tough

Enough—

Ain't it.

—W. J. Lampton.

"No wonder," replied the heavy-eyed Eskimo, "the baby has been crying all night."

"Indeed?"

"Yes, and that's exactly five months and six days so far."

Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any one remedy I have ever used." The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chief study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The lower court sustained the bank in refusing to pay over the attached money.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

In an interview with an Owensboro Messenger reporter, Gen. Hays is said to have advised young men to keep out of politics, adding: "An honest man has a hard row of stumps in politics these days." True, very true, with such men as Hays cavorting over the State bearing false witness against them and speaking all manner of evils falsely of his betters.—Frankfort Journal.

For Congress.

HARVEY HELM

of Lincoln county.

DEMOCRATS in convention at Somerset Saturday passed resolutions condemning N. B. Hays, and endorsing the "wise, patriotic and economic administration of Gov. Beckham and his associates in office who have aided him." The convention instructed delegates to the London convention to vote as a unit for Virgil H. Smith, for the nomination for Congress. To the resolutions there was but one dissenting voice.

FORMER Senator James K. Jones, twice chairman of the National Democratic Committee and manager of both the campaigns for the presidency of William J. Bryan, has written to Mr. Bryan advising him strongly to drop the subject of Government ownership of railroads and take a firm stand in favor of an enforcement of the laws now on the statute books.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE, of Indiana, in a speech at Chicago declared vigorously for more stringent Government regulation of trusts and railroads and predicted also that at no distant day, Cuba must come under United States rule. He spoke strongly of the probability of early intervention by this Government.

How the mighty has fallen. Fountain T. Fox, of Louisville, who ran for governor on the prohibition ticket a number of years ago, is now a candidate for school trustee in the Fourth and Fifth Wards of his city.

WOODFORD county and Nicholasville were added to the "dry" list Thursday. The former went 533 for local option and the city of Nicholasville 18. This is an off year for the "wets."

JUDGE HENRY B. HINES, candidate for auditor, has withdrawn from the race, leaving a clear field for clever Henry M. Bosworth.

POLITICAL.

Whitley democrats declared for Dr. A. Catliff, of Williamsburg for Congress.

William J. Bryan spoke in Jackson, Miss., to a crowd of 15,000 people. John Sharp Williams, who was present, also spoke briefly.

The Interstate Commerce Commission probably will ask at the next session of Congress that its powers be extended to include control over the classification of freight rates.

W. J. Bryan addressed an audience of about 7,000 people in Atlanta, shook hands with several hundred persons at a public reception and was the guest of honor at a "Dollar Democratic dinner."

Senator Bailey has declined to give out any statement in regard to the movement in Texas to defeat him for re-election, saying he would discuss the matter on the stump at the proper time.

In anticipation of Secretary Root's passage across the isthmus a general cleaning up has taken place along the canal route, the laborers' houses having been whitewashed and railroad property put in order.

Delegates to the Eleventh district Democratic Congressional convention were chosen Saturday in all the counties in that district, the delegations in the majority of the counties being unopposed. No one has announced as a candidate for the nomination but several names will be put before the convention, which meets in London tomorrow.

The Democratic Committee of the Third Railroad Commissioner's district declined to call a primary for the selection of a candidate on the Democratic ticket, the call for the meeting being declared void by the chairman after more than an hour of argument and discussion. McD. Ferguson, who favored a primary, expressed himself, after the meeting, as being willing to meet his opponents in a convention next spring.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Baptists of Paris are to have a new and elegant house of worship. Rev. Ed Hubbard will preach at the new Mason's Gap church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Miss Bettie Ludwick, who resides in the West End of this county, and C. H. Carroll, of Horn Beech, Tenn., were quietly married after having seen each other only a few hours. The groom some time ago advertised for a wife and Miss Ludwick answered and a correspondence ensued and pictures were exchanged and yesterday was agreed upon as the day for the wedding.—Danville News.

The marriage of Miss Maud Bernice Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams, to Mr. H. F. Waller, of Okalona, Miss., was solemnized at high noon Wednesday at the bride's home at Hustonville. Dr. Green, of Danville, assisted by Rev. Lander, officiated, using the impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church. The house was beautifully decorated, brilliant autumn flowers and foliage being used in profusion. The handsome bride wore a very charming gray gown of English over check, with hat and gloves to match and carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father, and the groom was attended by Dr. O. S. Williams. The bride numbers her friends by her acquaintances, having many attractive qualities and her popularity was shown by the large number of handsome gifts she received. Mr. Waller is a prominent citizen of Okalona and has made many friends here on his former visits. An elegant luncheon was served to the guests at the Hotel Weatherford, after which the happy couple left for an extended southern trip before taking up their residence in Okalona.

The Magazine Farmer.

I used to like the old place,
But now it ain't no use;
It's laid out inartistic,
And it's tacky as the deuce;
You see, I've been a-reading,
Till envy makes me green,
Of artistic agriculture
In a farming magazine.
It tells you how your pig pen
Should be on esthetic lines;
And your Looey Fourteen henhouse
Should be draped in iver-vines;
I'm going to sell the old place—
Its architecture's bum!
And I'll buy one of them dream-joints
In that magazine, by gum!
I'll raise no crops plebeian,
But I'll put in plants and shrubs;
I'll do no harvest sweating—
Leave that for old-time dubs!
I may not last a season
Fore I meet the sheriff man,
But I'm goin' to be a farmer
On the magazine plan!

Ladies' Fine Shoes—Zeiglers.
These very reliable Shoes for the Fall and Winter 1906-7 are beyond any former season's production. They have that very necessary snap and careful workmanship and suppleness that gives a shoe character. There is nothing else we could put into our $3 and $3.50 shoes to make them better. We show all the new lasts and leathers. The new walking boots in button and lace are models of shoe making.
A $2.00 SHOE.
We are often asked, "Can I get a good shoe for $2?" We honestly believe we give you more style and more service in our $2 Zeigler Shoe than any shoe made. Let us prove it. If we can't, your money back.

Competitors' Talk.

"Severance & Son are doing this;" "Severance & Son are doing that." Yes, Severance & Son are doing something all the time and endeavoring to do it right. We are always trying to get the newest and best, discarding the poor styles and poor qualities. Especially is this true in regard to Shoes. We have been importuned to buy certain lines of Shoes that have the looks, but lack wearing qualities. We have persistently adhered to our former policy to give our customers shoes that wear. This policy will prove very beneficial to you this season when leather is high and the country flooded with imitations.

School Shoes.

There is nothing else to it, a school shoe must be made of good material and of proper construction to stand the knocks of these perpetual motion shoe testers.
Bring the Boys and Girls to us and let us fit them with the right Shoe for service and comfort.
Little Folks' Shoes.
You must take care of the little folks' feet. Try a pair of our foot trimmers. They look elegant, yet are perfect fitters.

A WINNER. - A play that has met with success in England and France as well as this country called "A Race for a Widow," comes to Walton's Opera House to-night. It is a clever blending of comedy, sentiment, dramatic scenes and specialties. The play is in four acts and four scenes and goes with a snap from start to finish. Pete Baker, of Chris and Lena fame, appears in the star part, supported by a company said to be excellent.

THE following letter was received by Mr. R. B. Mahony, agent for the insurance company mentioned: I desire to thank you for the prompt and satisfactory settlement made me by the Continental Insurance Company for my house and contents that were destroyed by fire on the 16th of this month. The settlement is entirely satisfactory and the company paid me in full. George Ketron.

A CLEVER comedy filled with laughable situations and a love interest, not of the wishy-washy kind, is blended in with various other amusing complications in a play that has been successful abroad and in this country also, called "A Race For A Widow," and while it is comedy, there is a plot and strong dramatic situations are dovetailed in, making a capital entertainment. The company is said to be clever and they will appear at Walton's Opera House to-night. Pete Barker, the famous comedian, is the star.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION AT JELICO. - Probably the most terrific explosion of dynamite which ever occurred in this section was that at Jelico Friday morning about 8 o'clock. The theory most generally accepted as to the cause of the explosion is that Walter Rogers, who had charge of a cold storage warehouse there, shot at a target on a box car which contained the fearful explosive. Of course Mr. Rogers did not know the contents of the car, or he would never have done so foolish a thing. The bullet, it is thought, went through the car and striking the dynamite, an explosion followed which cost the life of seven persons, the injury of some 150 others and property loss of from $300,000 to $500,000. The known dead are: John Cook, a son of the late Milton Cook, of Rockcastle, Jos. Sellers, Walter Rogers, George Atkins, James Reynolds, John Gordon, colored, and a Syrian, whose name was not learned. Some of the injured are so badly hurt that they will die. The writer arrived at Jelico some 10 hours after the catastrophe and witnessed a scene of destruction, the like of which he had never seen or had scarcely read about. At least 50 business houses and dwellings were flat, while a hundred or more were wrenched and badly damaged. Window glass by the thousands were broken, even in that part of the town a half mile from the scene of the explosion. The Kentucky side, which consisted chiefly of frame buildings, was practically destroyed. It looked as if each house had been raised and dropped down hard enough to make the roof and floor come together, throwing the sides out. The brick buildings nearest to the scene appear as if they had been burned out. All the windows, doors and part of the roofs are gone. Every saloon in the town, and there must have been 20, was badly damaged, some of them entire losses. The district where whisky is sold suffered greatest. A dispatch says that the citizens have already begun the work of rehabilitation and it is believed they will be able to cope with the situation without the necessity of outside help. Where the car containing the dynamite stood, a hole was left large enough to put a small house in. One of the car wheels was found some 200 yards away, broken loose from the axle. A train for Corbin left a few seconds before the explosion and a man on the rear end of it was knocked off. The train had been standing by the side of the car of dynamite and had the explosion occurred a few minutes sooner there is no telling how many people would have been killed. Those killed were literally torn to pieces, only a foot or a hand of some of them having been found.

SOME weeks ago a hen belonging to Mrs. George D. Hopper became sick and Dr. W. Harry Higgins, her nephew, who was at her house, examined her. He found a large knot, which he at once began to investigate. An opening was made and Dr. Higgins found that her egg bag was torn. This he sewed up and then fastened the aperture. Her henship was turned loose to live or die, the doctor remarking that he thought she would live but would do no more good as a "layer." A little later the hen came out in full view of them all and laid an egg and to their still greater astonishment she laid another egg in a few hours.

The value of perfectly fitted glasses with regard to health can not be overestimated. Their effect upon the nervous system is direct, and through this indirectly, upon the entire organism.

A few of the troubles which result directly in this particular are: Neuralgia, Sick Headache and Nervous Prostration.

A sad mistake is made by most people in putting off the use of spectacles too long. The old advice, "Don't begin specs till you have to," has done a world of harm.

Over 700 mules are being fed for the Southern market by Hardin county farmers and traders. They were bought at $125 to $200 and the lot is valued at $113,000.

The Pickett, Carroll Reid's winner of the American Derby and Suburban two years ago, was sold at auction at Gravesend to Billy Lakeland for $1,500. It is said that his owners refused $50,000 for him once.

Horses must be scarce on the Pacific coast. According to a press statement in Seattle, the United States government was unable to purchase horses enough for the army maneuvers at American Lake and was reduced to the necessity of advertising for horses to rent at $1.50 per day.

Immense crowds thronged Guthrie Saturday to help the Dark Tobacco Growers' Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia celebrate its first anniversary. A barbecue was provided at which more than 20,000 persons were fed. The old officers of the association were re-elected.

LANCASTER COURT.—A big crowd attended court at Lancaster yesterday and business generally was good. It was mule colt day and they were there from the "four corners." A good many sold, prices ranging from $60 to $112.50. Aged mules were also high. The cattle market was quiet, only a few cattle changing hands.

The sale of J. W. Dishon was largely attended and a good dinner was spread. Prices on horses ranged from $20 to $89, 17 two-year-old heifers sold at $16.80, milk cows, $21 to $39, calves at $7, hogs at 6c. Household goods sold high. The house and lot was sold to W. L. Dishon for $1,100 cash. The stock of goods was not sold.

Dr. Hugh Reid has a valuable gelding by Naboth, dam a Harkaway mare, which promises to be a great race horse. He stepped a mile in 2:16 at Lexington the other day and his driver said he could have gone the distance in 2:12. The doctor refused a handsome offer for the speedy fellow but declined it, believing he has too good a race horse to dispose of.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Since a man has been found with conscience tender enough to reimburse a railroad for a ride stolen 20 years ago, we have hopes that those missing umbrellas will be returned eventually.—Atlanta Journal.

Pain from a Bruise Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

That disaster breeds endurance no one doubts. An Easterner who was visiting in California at the time of the recent calamity fully recognized this fact and gave the Californians credit for it.

A building had collapsed as a result of the earthquake. Besides several Californians, confined beneath the debris was a New Yorker. As the rescuers began removing the brick and timbers, a feeble voice called from a corner of the building far below:

"Help here! I am from the East, and am unused to earthquakes. Take me out first."—Youth's Companion.

WHY?
SUFFER
ECZEMA OR ANY SKIN DISEASE
WHEN THIS GOOD MEDICINE
+ZEMO+
HAS NEVER FAILED TO CURE

E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.
Dear Sirs: Believing that "ZEMO" saved my arms, if not my life, I will gladly tell all sufferers from eczema what your good medicine did for me. I suffered six years from a torturing case of itching eczema of both arms. I tried eight different doctors, and every eczema cure I could hear of without relief. The disease grew worse and spread to my neck and breast; my arms had great holes eaten in them; I soon became an invalid and was confined to my bed part of the time. My husband bought a bottle of "ZEMO"; the first application stopped the itching, and I began to improve; in six weeks and one day the disease had disappeared, and my arms were clean and smooth as my picture will show, before and after using "ZEMO." My arms were so bad some of my friends wanted me to have them taken off, but I would not agree. I am now a well-cured and have gained ten pounds in weight, and feel better than I have felt in many years. I consider my quick recovery by using "ZEMO" nothing short of a miracle. I will gladly answer all inquiries and recommend "ZEMO" to all persons suffering from any itching skin disease. Yours gratefully
Mrs. Harvey Burks.
